

Please, please, please do not weaken our DO NOT CALL law. I enjoy having uninterrupted dinners. I enjoy higher productivity because I'm not being interrupted constantly by some annoying sales person trying to sell me something. I'm not wondering whether there is a scam artist on the phone trying to steal my identity. If I want something I will call them for it. Life is much better with our law as it is. Bob